Can I Be Prosecuted If I Pay The Penalty Notice But My Child Is Still Missing School?

Not for the period included in the Penalty Notice, payment discharges your liability in this respect. However, it may be the case that a prosecution might be considered for further periods of unauthorised absence not covered by the Penalty Notice, depending upon the circumstances. If this is an issue, it is vital that you work closely with your child's school and support agencies such as the Education Welfare Service

If I Get A Fixed Penalty And Don't Pay, What Happens?

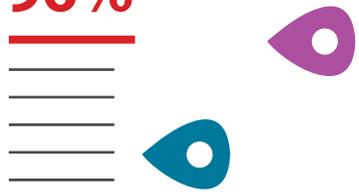

You have up to 28 days from receipt to pay the Penalty Notice in full. If full payment is not received within this time the local authority is required under the Act to commence proceedings in the Magistrates Court for the original offence of unauthorised absence by your child.

If proven, this can result in fines of up to £1,000 and/or a range of disposals such as Parenting Orders or Community Sentences.

If found guilty the parent will have a criminal record.

What Should I Do If My Child Is Truanting?

If your child is truanting you can:-

- talk to them - try to find out why.
- meet with a member of school staff to discuss the situation and look for solutions.
- contact the Education Welfare Service for advice and guidance
- try to understand what is happening for your child and help them resolve the problem.

Education is key to their future success so it's important to solve issues as quickly as possible.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

What parents & carers
Need to know

Every Day Counts

Support your child to achieve their best

Why Am I Being Sent This Leaflet?

This leaflet is being sent to parents/carers so they are aware of the need for their child to attend regularly and on time to achieve their best.

It is important parents and carers understand their responsibilities and the consequences of their child having unauthorised absence from school.

Why Attend Every Day?

Good school attendance gives your child the opportunity of success and helps develop skills for life. Your child should attend school every day unless there is an unavoidable cause such as illness. Missing school damages a student's learning and their grades (research shows that missing 17 days of school often leads to a drop in GCSE grades), disrupts routines and can make students vulnerable to crime.

Students should never miss school for reasons like shopping, birthdays or to wait in for a repair person. Missing school seriously affects life opportunities.

What If I Want To Go On Holiday?

Holidays in term time are not normally authorised. In exceptional circumstances, ask permission from the Head Teacher and check the school policy.

What Should I Do If My Child Is Off School?

Telephone the school as early as possible on the first morning of their absence to give the reason.

Make routine dentist and doctor appointments after school or during school holidays. If you have to make an appointment during school time, help your child to be at school for most of the day and let the school know about the appointment.

You may be asked for a medical certificate or appointment card if your child is regularly absent due to illness or dental/medical appointments.

Every Student Every Day

What will happen if my child does not attend regularly?

Parents/carers commit an offence if a child doesn't attend school regularly and the absence is not agreed by the school i.e. the absence is unauthorised). In some cases unauthorised absence may result in prosecution under Section 444 of the Education Act 1996.

The Anti-Social Behaviour Act 2003 introduced Penalty Notices as an alternative to prosecution. A Penalty Notice does not require a court appearance, but still aims to improve attendance.

When Will They Be Used?

When the school agrees for your child to miss school in advance or accepts your explanation, absence is 'authorised'. All other absence is 'unauthorised'. Penalty Notices may be used where absence is unauthorised, for example when:

- a parent has taken their child on holiday during term without authorisation.
- students are regularly late for school after the register has closed.
- a student has 10 or more unauthorised sessions within a six week period.
